ELIZABETH GARRETT ANDERSON SCHOOL
Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development Policy

Elizabeth Garrett Anderson is a school where everyone achieves without limits. All students, whatever their background or starting point can achieve their very best in whatever field they choose.

1. Context

At our school the promotion of pupils’ spiritual, moral, social and cultural education is considered to be key to meeting our core objective.

We recognise that the strands of SMSC education are interrelated and dependent on each other for the overall development of individuals and the school community.

We are a school with a diverse community and because our students work together and play together they will take this spirit of understanding and tolerance into the community and their adult lives, building the future for us all.

We have a broad curriculum offer where we strive to meet the interests and needs of all our learners. In lessons all students are challenged to broaden their knowledge and understanding of the world. In tutor time students are encouraged to discuss key issues, so sharing and understanding a range of perspectives.

School events celebrate success and progress in all its forms and celebrate the diversity of our population.

Parents work in partnership with the school and a range of events are held for all parents and for groups of parents who have particular shared interests.

As a school we use a restorative approach if any individual shows intolerant attitudes. This is based on an approach that education changes understanding and so behaviour.

Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development is promoted through all the subjects of the curriculum, through the ethos of the school where the development of positive attitudes and values is key and the shared celebration of progress, success and diversity is pivotal.

2. Principles

Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development is crucial for individual students, for communities and for society as a whole. We believe it is the heart of education - helping pupils grow and develop as people so they will engage fully in the education process and develop into citizens who actively contribute to society.

Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development is cross curricular and promotes the aims and principles of the policies for PSHE and Citizenship, RE, Drug Education, Sex and Relationships Education, Behaviour, Equalities, Safeguarding and Careers Education and Guidance. These policies all underpin the Curriculum and place the students at the centre of all we do.

All staff make a contribution to the Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development of pupils through the taught curriculum of every subject, the pastoral curriculum, the out of hours programme, school events and around the school.

Promoting SMSC development is central to how we show due regard to the general equality duty, fostering positive relationships and understanding between all members of the school community, parents and governors and towards society in general.

3. General Aims for Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development
